GOOD RACING AT HAWTHORNE.

There was nothing sensational in the racing at Hawthorne yesterday, neither was there anything in the way of an extraordinary attraction carded, still there was a rousing big crowd at the track, and every single winner was warmly applauded, no matter whether he or she was a favorite or not.

The greatest amount of interest was centered in the steeplechase which resulted in the most popular victory of the day, and was also productive of some turf discipline, inasmuch as Passe Partout, the horse that finished second, along with his rider, Gallagher and his owner, R. J. Laughlin, were suspended indefinitely pending investigation because the judges were not satisfied with the horse's performance. Apparently, however, Passe Partout with his heavy impost of 163 pounds ran about as good a race as he ever did before and Gallagher seemed to be trying for all he was worth during the entire journey. Perhaps Judge Kuhl has some inside information about the race. Passe Partout has raced most consistently since his first start over the sticks here and the same filly Frond that defeated him the last time they hitched was his conqueror in yesterday's event. Frond is as sweet a filly as anyone ever laid eyes on, and with the feminine portion of the spectators is highly thought of, consequently when she came galloping home about two lengths in front of Passe Partout the grandstand fairly rang with applause.

After the finish in the steeplechase there was some time consumed by the judges before the official result was announced. C. Johnson, who rode Sir Dick, complained that Passe Partout had run out of the course up on the far turn, hence the long wait for the official decision. After hearing Patrol Judge Nick Hall's statement and also Harry White's version of the race however Judge Kuhl let the result go as the horses had finished, namely, Frond, Passe Partout and Brakeman.

That Jiminez is a colt of some well founded pretensions to good class is a certainty. This youngster, according to F. J. Kelly's statement, was far from being ready to show at his best but nevertheless he beat Bengal and Searcher like cracking sticks in the third race. Caywood had the mount on Jiminez and knowing he was short rode a waiting race. He held the son of The Commoner—Birdie T. under restraint to the stretch and then cut loose eventually beating Bengal by a length after a hard drive.

Barney Schreiber, always popular with the Chicago crowds, won the second race with Tayon. This was the first time the purple, orange sleeves and red cap of Schreiber's has been seen in front for some time, and to see those colors first past the post was a sight good to witness. Tayon is a shifty animal in the selling plater class, and everything considered, his price of 3 to 1 was a royal one. Buchanan rode the Schreiber colt, and after interfering slightly with Emma R. in the stretch, won by about two lengths.

There was never any serious doubt about the fifth race except for a brief instant when Owensboro assumed command on the far turn. It was a mile and a sixteenth affair with Lady Meddlesome a staunch favorite. The lead of Owensboro was simply a "flash in the pan" and then Lady Meddlesome came on and won handily by three parts of a length. She was decidedly the best horse in the race. Papa Harry ran well and finished third with a fair price against him to show.

Jockey Buchanan put up a good ride on Found in the last race, which was at a mile and seventy yards. He got away in front and never relinquished the lead from the fall of the flag to the finish, winning by a large margin. Winkfield put up a good ride on Great Bend, but he simply could not produce enough speed to reach the flying leader at any stage.

Jake Marklein, always handy with two-year-olds, showed how good he was by "cleaning up" with Barbara M. in the first race. Barbara M. was always as good as 11 to 5, despite the heavy backing she received, and the way she won was highly pleasing to her admirers. Winkfield waited in second place until the stretch, then went to the front like a flash, winning without the least bit of an effort by five open lengths.

Ex-jockey Mayberry, with Bard of Avon, Specific, and Bicolor, arrived at Hawthorne yesterday from Saratoga.

Russell R., who won several good races at St. Louis and also scored brackets at Washington Park, died at Saratoga some time ago of lung fever.

James Arthur is also a recent arrival from Saratoga. He brought back all his horses, including Moroni, Hood's Brigade, Boomerack and others, and also a recent purchase, Ben Hadad.

J. F. Schorr has purchased the useful horse Koenig.

Several of Barney Schreiber's horses came in from Saratoga along with those of James Arthur and Mayberry.

P. Dunne has sold Vain and Gold Badge to Dr. H. E. Rowell.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Nantura yearlings, fifteen head, the property of F. B. Harper, were shipped to Sheephead Bay Tuesday morning where they will be sold in the American Horse Exchange paddocks next Monday. This collection of yearlings is one of the choicest sent out from the Blue Grass this year. Conspicuous among the number was a grand looking colt, own brother to Traverser and Elizabeth Klein, a handsome half sister to Longstreet and a magnificent son of Farandole and Ala Baba, by Glenelg. The latter colt is considered the best individual offered of the lot.

From New York it is announced that "Uncle Dan" Harness has decided most positively to retire lmp to the stud after this season, though she is still sound and will fill some of her fall engagements. It is stated that when Tod Sloan returns to England he will take Willie Simms with him. Simms was in England with Michael F. Dwyer and made a failure of it then, but conditions have totally changed since that time.

The crack three-year-old colt, Prince of Veronia, has almost fully recovered from the accident he sustained in a railroad crash on his way back from the south last spring. He is by Cayuga—Veronia, and is owned by the firm of A. H. & D. H. Morris. The colt showed promise of being one of the cracks of his year and earned brackets in three early races, including the Crescent City Derby at New Orleans, when he defeated Sidney Lucas at even weights. He will be a factor in coming events at Sheephead Bay, Gravesend and Morris Park.

Program books for the first week of Harlem's next meeting, which opens next Monday, Labor Day, were issued last night by Secretary Nathanson. For the opening day he has prepared an attractive card—one which merits the approval of horsemen, and it is one that should appeal favorably turf patrons. The program provides for a stake race every other day. The book shows an occasional increase in the value of purses, especially for the first day's card, and as the good horses arrive the purses will be further increased, as the season progresses.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Indications are that the coming meeting will be punctuated with high class sport, as a number of good stables will be here from Saratoga and St. Louis.

The long continued and successful St. Louis meeting ended yesterday, but racing begins at the new Kinloch track Saturday, and will continue there for sixty days, so St. Louis will have racing enough and to spare this year. Barney Schreiber viewed the new track last Sunday, and on his return here said: "I was greatly surprised at the results hard work and intelligently applied energy have produced at Kinloch. The track will surely be in readiness for racing next Saturday, and its appointments are remarkably good and complete. All details have been so well provided for that I am confident the new track will be a success, and I shall race some of my horses there."

INCOMPETENT JOCKEYS.

It is not the question of incompetent jockeys alone that is disturbing the racing mind just at present. It is rather what shall be done with them or for them. In other words, how shall the punishment be made to fit the crime? That an incompetent jockey is theoretically the worst kind of a political criminal few losers will be prepared to negative. Of course even the best boys will get stale, just as a horse, an athlete or any other conditional human factor works off. This is readily understood and excused by all who have any practical knowledge of the actual surroundings of a jockey's life, and know what it means to keep weight off and ride two or three hard races a day, week in, week out. In such a case a boy is given a rest by his employers, rides a few no account "skates" possibly for exercise, and by and by rounds to and displays his usual form. This is not what is worrying the public.

It is rather the recent case of a jockey who has this season, since Aqueduct, ridden twenty-five races and won only two of these events. The other day he rode a particularly obnoxious and atrocious race on a 3 to 5 favorite, finishing absolutely last in a field of four horses, and his punishment was to be prohibited from riding for six days and then reinstated. The question is, what effect will the six days' obligatory retirement have upon the youth? Is he supposed to accumulate practical jockeyship by the absorption cure?

Surely the six days' rest is not expected to make the slightest iota of difference in the capacity of the boy in question. He remains as he was, less the six days' practice, in which he might have lost several other chances of learning something, and so the state of innocuous desuetude ended, he emerges from his retirement ready and willing to again display his talents with their new and additional polish.

What is to be done in such cases? Some representative men hold that when such a boy is placed upon a prominent competitor that failure to perform satisfactorily should ensure his being set down, not for a week, but until some one is willing to be responsible to some extent for his capability. Just as the entries of a horse are refused until he has been passed as amenable to the starter. Possibly this view may be entitled to more than passing consideration.

If the boy is "incompetent," what is to be done with him? If something else is the matter, why tag "incompetent" to his punishment record?—Spirit of the Times.

Time, 12:25, 504, 1:03:4. Winner—Ch. f, by Masetto—Banka's Daughter. Went to post at 2:26. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second and third under keen pressure. Barbara M. was the best, was best ridden, and had an easy time of it. Lady Idris is a speedy filly and ran a good race, displaying more gameness than usual at the end. Fondo broke in front, apparently well in his stride, but was sharply cut off, ruining whatever chance he had of winning. From the three furlong post home the gelding made up a lot of ground and the chances are he would have been a keen contender. Princess Tatyana ran a poor race. For some reason the filly was out-run and never had a chance of winning. Corn I Cut was right there at the end. Cinera made a strong bid on the far turn. Matin showed some speed, but not much.

Corrected weights—Cinera, 97. Overweights—Matin, 2 pounds; Barbara M., 2; Cinera, 5. Barbara M., place, 9 to 10; show, 2 to 5. Lady Idris, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Fondo, show, evens. Princess Tatyana, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Time, 12:24, 494, 1:16. Winner—Br. c, by Lissak—Caroline Hamilton. Went to post at 2:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving and out to the last ounce. Teyon is a handy selling plater and stood a long drive gamely. He swerved some in the stretch, interfering slightly with Emma R. The interference, however, was not sharp enough to call for judicial action. ABE Furst ran a good race. Emma R. showed the most speed early but tired badly under pressure at the end. Lady Britannic was well ridden and ran a smashing race. Jake Weber seems to be of little or no account. He was heavily backed but failed dismally. L. T. Caton ran about a sixteenth of a mile further than any other horse. Peace was almost knocked down on the far turn. Lady Curzon showed fine speed.

Scratched—20325 G. Goal Runner, 104; 20355 Lomond, 98; 190543 Brownie Anderson, 95. Overweights—Lady Britannic, 2 pounds; Emma R., 24. Teyon, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Emma R., place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. ABE Furst, show, 4 to 5. Peace, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Time, 12:25, 504, 1:03, 1:09:4. Winner—B. c, by The Commoner—Birdie T. Went to post at 3:20. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving hard; second and third the same. Jiminez is a colt with some pretensions to good class and although he was hardly ready to run a smashing race under a perfect ride. Bengal improves with every start. He hung to Jiminez like a leech all through the stretch and never gave up until within the last twenty yards. Searcher got a flying start and had no excuses. The race was always between the first three. Hurry met with some interference on the far turn that ruined whatever chance she had.

Scratched—(20324) Dangerline, 113. Overweights—Searcher, 2 pounds. Jiminez, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Bengal, place, 8 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Searcher, place, 1 to 3; show, out.

*Coupled in betting. Time, 3:15. Winner—B. f, by Norwood—Fern Leaf. Went to post at 4:00. Off at the first break to a good start. Won cleverly; second easily; the next two were driving. Frond showed the most speed, fenced to perfection, was cleverly handled and won all the way. This is one of the best jumpers in the business considering her size. Passe Partout, according to the judges' way of thinking, did not run his race, and jockey Gallagher and the entire Passe Partout stable have been suspended. The gelding heretofore has been most consistent. Brakeman is on the improving list. Sir Dick made up a lot of ground in the last half mile. Coronatus showed more speed than ever before and jumped finely. He was a tired horse at the last jump and stumbled, falling to his knees. Viking plodded along at a slow gait all the way. The judges hesitated a long time about disqualifying Passe Partout. Johnson, who rode Sir Dick, claimed that the gelding went out of the course on the far turn, but, after thoroughly investigating the matter, the judges ignored Johnson's claim.

Scratched—1862 Meddler, 167. Overweights—Coronatus, 5 pounds; Uncle Jim, 1. Frond, place, 9 to 10; show, out. Passe Partout, place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Brakeman, show, 6 to 5. Sir Dick, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. The entry, place, out.

Time, 12:24, 504, 1:16:1, 1:42:1, 1:49:1. Winner—B. f, by Meddler—Little Lady II. Went to post at 4:38. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second, third, fourth and fifth were driving to the limit. Lady Meddlesome outclassed her field and was in a soft spot. The price again, her was an extremely liberal one. Buchanan rode a fine race taking the filly along at about the same even rate all the way. Owensboro went to the front like a shot on the far turn and for an instant seemed to be winning but when the pressure was applied he weakened. Papa Harry, who is in fine form now, ran his usual honest race. Annowan made up ground throughout after getting away badly and having much bad luck. Obsidian must have mud to do his best. Hansford showed his usual amount of speed but was anchored by the weight. Ben Chance ran a bad race. So did Frangible. Scratched—20291 Dandy H., 102. Lady Meddlesome, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Owensboro, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Papa Harry, show, 8 to 5.

Found is in fine fettle and won all the way. She was cleverly rated in front and gained a winning lead on the far turn. Great Bend had no excuses other than he was not speedy enough. Winkfield rode the best he knew how and the horse always had clear sailing. Sauber was right there all the way. Arthur Behan ran a better race than the figures show, being prominent between calls down the backstretch. Etta was never a contender. Scratched—19733 Marsara, 107; 201463 Macy, 106.
